Subdistribution Contact List

Subdistribution is the sharing of donated food which an Agency Partner is unable to distribute through their program before spoiling. Subdistribution of excess food is permitted within the SLO Food Bank Agency Partner Network.

SLO Food Bank requires documentation of all organizations receiving subdistributed food to aid in communications in the event of a product recall for food that may have been rescued and shared.

Name of Organization/Individual	Email (preferred) or phone number	Notes