SLO FOOD BANK

Temperature Log for Rescued Food

Refrigerated food should be 41° or lower, shell eggs and milk may be received at 45° if cooled to 41° within 4 hours. Frozen food must be frozen solid, w/o signs of freezer burn.

Date of Pickup	Type of Product (circle one) R=refrigerated F=frozen	Recorded Temperatures		Check below if donation was declined or disposed of
		"On-site" at time of donation	Upon returning to Agency
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F
	R / F

Per our agreement with Feeding America, volunteers and staff performing collections of food rescue are required to take sample temperatures of refrigerated and frozen product "on-site" at the time of donation, and again upon returning to the Agency after transport.

Please keep these records for reference during compliance checks.